

Money Is Not Money

We all know that our money is not money. Today money is created out of thin air by the most unscrupulous people and it is a great evil power in this world. The more we work with them the more enslaved we are. It is all artificial, imitation and counterfeit. Banks do not have real money to give. This thievery is accepted by everyone using them. The evil governments not only cooperate with the banks but make unjust laws requiring all of us to use fake money. The wicked courts enforce this great lie allowing robbery of the masses to continue unabated. The only way that governments, businesses and families can all be in such astronomical debt is by stealing everyone blind. So money no longer truly exists. It is the greatest con ever. It is extreme fakery.

How could workers ever really be in debt to such an outrageously false representation of money? From any religious perspective this is forbidden. Only a parasite participates in pyramid schemes. We are all immoral and idiotic if we do not stop. It is like paying off a drug dealer; it is not too much to ask that people no longer play this money game.

“Money does not pay for anything, never has, never will. It is an economic axiom as old as the hills that goods and services are paid for only with goods and services.” - Al Nock

Money is debt, that is, if we had no debt this money wouldn't be here. The really big news is that as we pay debt it gets worse, because we are living on more synthetic money. This cannot go on forever. If we do not face it our posterity will. Our situation is most incredible; if we do not quit it larger more ruinous things will take place. We better recognize modern money for what it is, the greatest terrorist attack ever.

“Money is a new form of slavery” - Leo Tolstoy

There is a Cree Indian Proverb which goes something like this, “Only when the last tree has died and the last river been poisoned and the last fish caught will we realize that we cannot eat money.”

There is not even enough money for the interest; meanwhile the governments spend more than ever before. It is so irrational; usury is the destruction of everything associated with it. If people were not so greedy for such lies and destruction nobody would need it. The sensible thing would be to simply say we all need to quit and give up the addiction which has so violently ensnared us. This is because it is mad and bad money. We are not ready for how sad it will get. The party-line media and educational systems have marshaled in these offenses. Be mindful that we are paying the cost of our own slavery. Goetje said, "None are more enslaved than those who falsely believe they are free."

There is a great problem in printed or electronic money. Modern money is an illusion at best, something totally imaginary, at the same time it is both restrictive and exploitive. It works only in the realm of artificial ideas. This money dulls reason and makes wealth even a more dangerous addiction than it would otherwise be. How it works out is that buying and selling causes the manipulation of others. The vast modern monetary system is truly nothing less than a giant Ponzi scheme; it is only debt on top of more debt. It might be true that there would never be a lack of real money, but it was long ago when only gold and silver was money. But never think that hoarding gold is a great solution to this world's problems, for gold is not a good place to hide either. Let our life not end as a moneygrubber like the miser Judas.

Making money out of nothing is as wicked as anything. It offers only death. In trading the receiver gets the dirty end of the deal. Our money is certainly not heaven sent. The day our money is obsolete is a day in which I will celebrate. Something very big is at stake here, and something incredibly wicked has set up housekeeping all around us. This is no accident; it has in fact been intentionally set up. It all began in England, in 1694, with banking. Maybe some might give it a slightly early date, say around 1666. Either way it is now worldwide, providing a practically limitless source of avarice and putting chains on all of us which lead to a ball which is in the bottomless pit of hell. We all need to learn to live within the allowable provision of God. Here is one last thing to ponder: The Stock Market is a gambling casino, it would be better called WOLF STREET.
