

Identification Declaration

I have been seriously converting towards Russian old Orthodox Christianity since 1995. For centuries, up to our modern times, my people reject identification and also personal names. This idea predates Christianity as is found in the Old Testament book of Numbers 23:9,

“...behold, the people shall dwell alone, and shall not be numbered among the nations.”

Today everything is about numbers, not names. People are put into bondage from birth. This bondage flows directly from given names, is immediately placed onto birth certificates, then into other Identification(s). It is a Security Bond, where the International Equity Fund trades stock. Each person has their own Ticker/Stock symbol. Individual trade totals could be millions of dollars that world bankers earn from people's personal Bond[age]. It's evil slavery.

The scholarly book, Religion in the Soviet Union, speaking of Russian old Orthodox Christians, on page 279, explains how we obey God before obeying man. p. 327 that in these times we should have an uncompromising attitude towards secular authority, almost being anti-social; otherwise there is no freedom of conscience, nor freedom of religion. p. 361 tells about us who destroyed their ID and refused secular work. p.368 these are “People Ignoring Numbers” who say that where there are accounts and figures there is also deceitful violence, as people of God we do not want this. p.369 says we always refuse to give names to authorities, nor residence, not even a place of birth. p.371 we insist on being vagrant to prepare for the end of the world.

So, we must have no earthly habitation of our own, nor be numbered by or to the land we sleep on. All worldly addresses are Internationally recognized. We are wherever we find ourselves; basically we're transient. Also, we are “Non-Possessors.” The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof. It is obvious, worldly minded people wax worse and worse, and this is at an all-time high. If the laws of God mean nothing to powerful men of this passing world, or to the masses, we are not deterred in the least from fearing to disobey even one commandment.

We must be name renouncer's and world renouncer's. The Holy Gospel says, “Woe to the rich.” Corporate numbers of government, like Social Security, all meet the criteria for the “mark of the beast.” The 501(?) corporate status churches have given themselves over to mammon as can be seen in their articles of incorporation, rather than serving God they serve what errantly passes for money. No true Christian allows themselves to be “an arm of the Antichrist.” Christ spoke of His Kingdom, not democracy, where the majority rules, right or wrong; nor of a republic ruled by elected leaders governing others. He is our King. If there were another Caesar (ruler) today they would be as the devil, we cannot submit to or support satan. There is this double-true statement, “What fellowship hath light with darkness?” We are assured of not taking beastly marks by our increasing resistance. For instance, if the world demands we be numbered, that does not make it so. If they number us, we just reject all that.

Our tested conscience refuses all related evils like, photography, finger printing, etc. which are used by aforesaid devilish government(s). Our personal freedom categorically refuses these as they harm spirit, soul, mind and body, extending all the way to heaven. Jefferson said, “If a law is unjust, a man is not only right to disobey it, he is obligated to do so.” So our resistance is a responsible duty resting on us who would be a good example. There is no justification to accuse us of disobeying what is correct and honest, as we exist under an object vow of poverty.

In sincerity please be forgiving and as good angels be redeeming — a sojourner in your midst.
